National Library Week at the St. Joseph Public Library

National Library Week will be celebrated April 10-16. This year's theme is "Libraries Transform." When I think about what that theme means to me, one thing comes to mind. I think about libraries transforming people's lives. Does the library transform lives by offering books, movies, music, computers, storytimes and other programs? I'd like to think those things do play a part. However, when I think about libraries transforming lives I first think of our library staff, quickly followed by our patrons. Without the people, libraries are just buildings holding things. To truly transform, something must change a person. Do you just bring your child to storytime and listen to a book being read aloud? Or is it the librarian that brings that book to life and the imagination of the child to see the story? The librarian helped you find the right book, but is that just a book you hold in your hands or is it a life changing story that transforms the way you view the world? Is that just a CD made from plastic or is it music that soothes your soul or inspires you to greatness?

Libraries can offer things, but librarians and patrons together can transform lives.

During National Library Week the St. Joseph Public Library will be celebrating by giving away prizes at each of our four branches. There will also be a city-wide scavenger hunt for families. Please join us in celebrating this very special week! For more information about the prize drawings and the scavenger hunt see pages 7 and 12.

The Mark Twain Readers Club

The Mark Twain Readers Club is a book club hosted by the Children's Department at the Downtown Library for kids in 4th through 8th grade. All you have to do to be a member is read the current Mark Twain Award nominees. You can win prizes and be entered for a really cool grand prize just for reading the books.

Prizes:

- Prizes are awarded after reading 1 book, 4 books, and 8 books.
- After 4 books, your name is put into a drawing for $50, which party attendees are eligible to win.

The program runs throughout each year, culminating in March when we have a book/pizza party to celebrate our readers. We discuss nominees, eat pizza and play games, as well as the $50 drawing. You also get to vote for your favorite Mark Twain nominee.

The next Mark Twain Readers Club Party for eligible club members will be March 14 at 6 p.m. at the Downtown Library.

Call 232-3812 for more information on how to become a member.

Wiggle, Giggle and Go to the Children's Fair

On April 26 the St. Joseph Public Library will once again be a part of the St. Joseph Children's Fair. This event, organized by the St. Joseph Youth Alliance, happens annually at the Civic Arena. Each of the twenty plus area organizations choose a book that works with the overall theme of the year, this year that theme is "movement". They then use the book as inspiration for the craft or activity at their booth. The target audience is for those six and under, however all ages are welcome. All children in attendance will receive a free book. Parking is free in the garage next to the Civic Arena for those attending. There is no pre-registration, just show up during one or more of the three sessions: 9 a.m.-11:30 a.m., 12:30 p.m.-3 p.m. or 5 p.m.-7:30 p.m.

Rump: The True Story of Rumpelstiltskin by Liesl Shurtliff

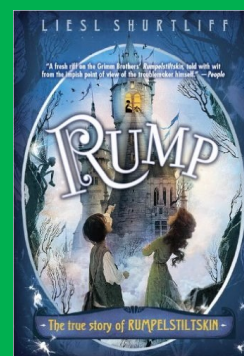

Reviewed by Bethany Barton, Downtown Library, Children's Department.

Growing up, 12-year-old Rump always heard that your name was your destiny. However, Rump never knew his whole name. I mean, what kind of name is Rump? It is a name that will make you the butt of everyone's jokes. When he finds his mother's old spinning wheel, things seem to change for Rump. He learns that he can spin straw into gold. However, magic can be a dangerous thing.

Rump, on a mission to break the spinning spell, travels to Yonder and Beyond, encounters trolls, pixies, poison apples, and a foolish queen.

Truman Read
Award Nominee

The Truman/ Gateway Readers Club

The Truman/Gateway Readers Club is for teen readers grades 6-12. These books are award nominees that encourage students in their teen years to express their unique voice through exploring new literary genres, communicating with their peers about young adult literature, and honoring authors writing for teens. Once a teen has read 4 books they will be entered to win a $50 gift card. Each additional nominee read enters them for another chance at winning. Every spring the Downtown Library's Truman/Gateway Club holds a party for club members. At the yearly party, the winner of the gift card is selected and members vote for their favorite Truman nominee and favorite Gateway nominee.

The Truman/Gateway Readers Club annual party will be on Saturday, March 19 at 11 a.m.

Refreshments will be served. Contact Kathy at 232-7729 for more information.

Downtown Library's Family Place 1-2-3 Play with Me! Sessions Return

How can I promote healthy eating in my child? How can I ready my child for reading? What are some effective potty training strategies and how best do I handle tantrums? These questions and many more will be answered during St. Joseph Public Library's Family Place 1-2-3 Play with Me! play-and-learn sessions offered at the Downtown Library located at 927 Felix Street. The session themes target development in children ages 12 months to 5 years.

The six weekly sessions will feature a professional in a specific area of child development who will visit with you and your child during the session to offer suggestions and answer any questions you may have about the weekly topic.

During each session, children will be able to play with an array of stimulating and age-appropriate toys, interacting with parents and other children.

Sessions will be Mondays at 10:30 a.m. beginning March 21st and ending April 25th.

The series is limited to 10 families, so registration is necessary. Registration is for all six sessions and families are encouraged to attend each one. To register call the Downtown Children's Library at 232-3812 by March 14th. For more information, ask for Jen Wildhagen.

City-wide Scavenger Hunt April 9

April 10-16 is National Library Week and this year's theme is Libraries Transform. What better way to kick-off a week of celebration than a city-wide scavenger hunt that will take you to several places in our city that transform lives every day! Teams will meet at the Downtown Library at 2 p.m. to receive their clues. The first team to return to the Downtown Library with completed clues wins a fabulous family prize pack! One vehicle per team. Sign your team up and get more information from Kathy at 232-7729.

Library in Pictures

Photography Contest For All Ages at the Downtown Library in April

The Downtown Library will be hosting a photography contest in April. There will be two age divisions: those up to age 17 and 18 and over. Prizes will be awarded in each age division with 1st place receiving $50.00 and 2nd place receiving $25.00. There will also be an overall staff pick prize of $25.00. There is no theme for this year's contest. Pictures with captions need to be submitted to the Downtown Library no later than 5 p.m. on April 1. The award reception will be held on Tuesday, April 12 at 6:30 p.m. For more information call Kathy at 232-7729.

BACKSTORIES

BackStories is a new monthly program at the East Hills Library. Each month we will be visited by an area musician and hear their music, the story behind their songs and their musical inspiration. Light refreshments provided. Approximate running time is 60 minutes.

Monday, March 28 @ 7 p.m.

John Goolsby is a born performer. From his first church solo at age 7, to sharing the stage with such as artists as Luke Bryan, Pat Green and Pat Benatar, John lives to sing and play his songs for as many people as he can. John's debut album, which will be released this year, is already drawing comparisons to critically acclaimed singer/songwriter Chris Stapleton. With a varied list of influences to draw from, this is hopefully the beginning of a long musical journey.

Monday, April 25 @ 7 p.m.

Dana Stuart is a singer-songwriter and recording artist from St. Joseph. While Dana played piano for many years, it wasn't until a series of personal hardships that she turned to music and discovered her soulful vocals and songwriting skills in rock, alternative and adult contemporary. She has been writing and performing all over the Midwest ever since.

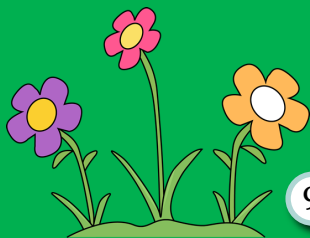

Spring is in the Air!

Do you love gardening, butterflies, flowers and volunteering? Washington Park Library has a volunteer opportunity for you to help keep our library's gardens and park beautiful from spring to fall!

We are looking for a business, gardening club, church group or volunteers to keep our gardens at Washington Park Library always looking their best for the many patrons who visit us daily.

Washington Park Library opened on June 23, 1910 and was funded by Andrew Carnegie. The library is nestled in a triangular park that is bordered by Washington Avenue, North Third Street and Market Street. The park was originally donated by the St. Joseph Extension Company in honor of Washington Jones, a prominent community leader in St. Joseph in the early 1900s. The building has exterior architectural features such as open books and holly berry decorations.

If your group, business or club are experienced gardeners and interested in volunteering at Washington Park Library, please call Karen Schultz at 232-2052.

SJPL Staff Book Review

X by Sue Grafton

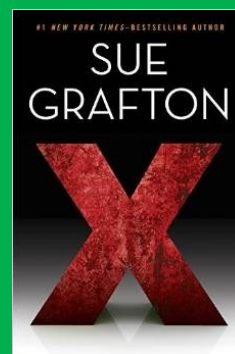

Reviewed by Mary Beth Revels, Library Director

Sue Grafton is up to "X" in her alphabet series of books featuring private investigator, Kinsey Millhone. The books are set in the 1980s, pre-internet, pre-cell phones. Kinsey makes full use of phone books and payphones. Ahh, those were the days.

I never did figure out why this book was called "X" except that is the letter Grafton had to work with. There were three stories happening here: Kinsey and her landlord Henry have some new neighbors who turn out to be a nightmare; Kinsey is following up on cases from Pete Wolinsky, a private eye who died in "W is for Wasted" and ends up tangling with a very nasty man indeed and finally she plays reluctant marriage counselor to a feuding rich couple.

Friends Only Event: World War II Victory Posters

Members of the Friends of the St. Joseph Public Library are invited to a special evening of craft beer and wine tasting and to learn more about the World War II victory posters on display at the East Hills Library. The event will take place on Saturday, March 26 at 6 p.m. Reference Librarian, Jennifer Sanders-Tutt will be speaking about the history of these unique posters. After the presentation everyone is welcome to walk around and view the posters while enjoying selected beers and wines, as well as hors d'oeuvres. Friends members wishing to attend must RSVP no later than Monday, March 21. To RSVP, email [cstuck@sjpl.lib.mo.us](mailto: cstuck@sjpl.lib.mo.us) or call 236-2136. If you are not a member of the Friends of the St. Joseph Public Library and would like to attend this event, visit any library branch to join.

Victory posters were originally produced during the Great War, or World War I. The library's collection of posters were reproduced quickly at the beginning of World War II and used to build morale until newly designed posters for the current war effort could be printed.

Libraries Transform: National Library Week April 10-16

First sponsored in 1958, National Library Week is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association and libraries across the country each April. This year National Library Week is April 10-16. Libraries of all types are evolving to meet the needs of the communities they serve. At the St. Joseph Public Library we are transforming by offering innovative programming, computer and internet access, electronic content, computer classes and much more. To help celebrate this important week, the St. Joseph Public Library will be offering patrons a chance to win prizes.

Come to any branch to enter prize drawings. Enter babies through six-year-olds in a drawing for a copy of the children's book, Frederick by Leo Lionni, along with a plush toy mouse. Those ages seven through 17 may enter for a $25 gift card from Hastings and adults 18 and over may win a $25 gift card from East Hills Shopping Center.
