Third Annual Dr. Seuss Birthday Brunch Bonanza at the Keatley Center!

The Third Annual Dr. Seuss Birthday Brunch Bonanza will be held Saturday, March 4th, from 10 a.m. to Noon at the Keatley Center (1202 S. 28th St.). Parents, caregivers, and families with pre-kindergarten children ages 6 and under are welcome to attend this event, co-sponsored by the St. Joseph Public Library, Parents as Teachers and Success By 6. No sign-up is required for this free, fun-filled morning of books, brunch and interactive play.

At the Dr. Seuss Birthday Brunch Bonanza, families will participate in early literacy activities such as puppet shows, imaginative play, alphabet games, crafts and storytelling. Families with children age 6 and under will receive a complimentary Seuss-themed brunch, served by the Kiwanis Club of St. Joseph. In addition to a morning of activities and a free meal, each child in attendance will receive a free book. Complimentary books and food will be provided on a first-come first-served basis.

Dr. Seuss Birthday Brunch Bonanza is part of the St. Joseph Public Library's Racing to Read grant initiative to promote early literacy skills in our community. This event and the Racing to Read grant is supported by the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act as administered by the Missouri State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State.

Technology Mini-Grant to Support Young Filmmakers!

An LSTA Technology Mini-Grant from the Missouri State Library provided funds to allow the St. Joseph Public Library to purchase iPads, microphones, lights and a padcaster. The equipment will be used to provide learning opportunities for all ages through innovative programming. To kick things off, “Roll Cameras!!!” and “Stop! Animate and Film It!” classes will begin in January for school age children.

These programs and more to come are supported by the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act as administered by the Missouri State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State.

Filmmaking and Stop Motion Animation Classes at the Downtown Library!

The Downtown Children's Library is introducing two exciting programs for young people this year. The library recently received an LSTA Technology Mini-Grant from the Missouri State Library that provided funding to purchase iPads and other movie making equipment. Call the Children's Department at 232-3812 to get registered!

Roll Cameras!!!

For Grades 5-8. Mondays @ 4 p.m. Sign-up and attendance at all sessions required.

Have you ever wanted to learn what it takes to make a movie? Kids in 5th through 8th grade are going to work in teams to brainstorm, storyboard, and film short ads for the library. This is guaranteed to be a fun and challenging program incorporating acting, editing, creativity and patience.

January 23: Form teams and start practicing with apps on the iPad2. Brainstorm and begin storyboard.

January 30: Script writing, discuss locations and needs for project completion.

February 6: Begin filming.

February 13: Continue filming, begin editing if filming is complete.

February 27: Finish filming, if necessary and wrap up editing.

March 6: Awards Night! Viewing of finished projects and announcing winners of different categories.

Stop! Animate and Film It!

For Grades 3-6. Thursdays @ 4 p.m. Sign-up and attendance at all sessions required.

Stop motion animation is a really fun way to make a movie. In this program, groups will work together, brainstorming and filming. Using LEGO Movie Maker on the iPad, groups will have an opportunity to make short films.

January 26: Intro to LEGO Movie Maker and iPad. Brainstorming plot ideas.

February 2: Storyboard or outline movie ideas and begin filming.

February 9: Complete filming and editing.

February 23: Film review and awards ceremony.

Welcome to Wonderland: Home
Sweet Motel by Chris Grabenstein

Reviewed by Bethany
Barton, Downtown
Library, Children's Librarian

P.T. Wilkie loves to tell stories and he uses that strategy when he learns that the Wonderland Motel needs to earn $100,000 by the end of the month or the doors will be closed forever. P.T. teams up with his friend Gloria to come up with ideas to draw in customers. P.T.'s first idea is Croaky Karaoke with the pool's giant frog slide. Their next idea is a pirate treasure hunt, which works great until they get in trouble with local businesses. P.T. learns that there may be hidden jewels somewhere...

Fangirl by Rainbow Rowell

Reviewed by Mary Beth Revels, St. Joseph Public Library Director

This was a totally delightful story about Cather & Wren, identical twins in Nebraska. They have always done everything together but as they go off to college at the University of Nebraska - Lincoln, extrovert Wren wants a different roommate and a life away from her sister. Introvert Cath is devastated. Both sisters have challenges their first year of college.

A big part of this story involves Cath and her FanFiction blog related to a very Harry Potteresque character.

Families, love and growing up are all themes in this fun book.
