

Title

Date

1. _____	_____
2. _____	_____
3. _____	_____
4. _____	_____
5. _____	_____
6. _____	_____
7. _____	_____
8. _____	_____
9. _____	_____
10. _____	_____

Getting started: Try to read to your kids every day. Future readers are kids who are read to regularly.

11. _____	_____
12. _____	_____
13. _____	_____
14. _____	_____
15. _____	_____
16. _____	_____
17. _____	_____
18. _____	_____
19. _____	_____
20. _____	_____

Title

Date

21.
22.
23.
24.
25.
26.
27.
28.
29.
30.

Have a special place, such as a large comfy chair, that is your designated reading place.

31.
32.
33.
34.
35.
36.
37.
38.
39.
40.

Title

Date

41.
42.
43.
44.
45.
46.
47.
48.
49.
50.

Try to read one favorite, one familiar and one new book at each session.

51.
52.
53.
54.
55.
56.
57.
58.
59.
60.

Title

Date

61.
62.
63.
64.
65.
66.
67.
68.
69.
70.

Read with expression, slowing, quickening, raising and lowering your voice for drama.

71.
72.
73.
74.
75.
76.
77.
78.
79.
80.

Title

Date

81.
82.
83.
84.
85.
86.
87.
88.
89.
90.

If possible, read the book first before sharing it. This way you can introduce the book and suggest things for the child to look for.

91.
92.
93.
94.
95.
96.
97.
98.
99.
100.		