HISTORY SPEAKS

History Speaks is a monthly history program dedicated to showcasing local and regional historical topics and their lasting impact on our community. Join us at the Downtown Library every First Saturday for a fresh look at interesting historical topics regarding St. Joseph and surrounding areas.

For more information about the History Speaks program, or if you are interested in being a speaker, contact Jennifer Sanders-Tutt at the Downtown Library at 232-8151.

-Saturday, February 2 @ 2 p.m. - African-American Community in St. Joseph, 1920 - For the entirety of its history, St. Joseph has had a relatively small African-American community. Using publicly available sources, Dr. Kim Schutte is building a picture of this important—but little understood—segment of St. Joseph's history.

-Saturday, March 2 @ 2 p.m. - St. Joseph Women in the Field of Historic Preservation - In honor of Women's History Month, History Speaks takes a look at St. Joseph women who were outspoken in the field of preservation. Join Historic Preservationist, Lauren Manning, as she shares the history of the amazing women who fought to save and preserve St. Joseph's history.

Genealogy Drop-in - Get help starting on your genealogy or get a fresh perspective on your existing research. Local History Librarian, Jennifer Sanders-Tutt, will help you navigate all the avenues to take in your genealogy quest or help you through roadblocks you may have encountered. Assistance with learning how to preserve and digitize your records also available.

Wednesdays, 2 - 4 p.m. on February 6, 13, 20 & 27 and March 6, 13, 20 & 27.

Movie Night for Adults - This event is intended for anyone 17 and over. It is free and no registration is needed. Free popcorn provided and drinks with lids are welcome.

From the STACKS

“From the Stacks” is a feature that will appear occasionally in issues of the ShelfLife Newsletter. Its purpose is to highlight unique items from the library collection.

Marshall and Melanie White donated several local cookbooks to the Downtown Library Reference Department. While the cookbooks cannot be checked out, patrons are welcome to visit the Downtown Library to use the collection of cookbooks.

Here is a recipe from one of the cookbooks. The cookbook is titled “Our Family Favorites: The Brookdale Church, St. Joseph, MO,” copyrighted 1987 by Cookbook Publishers, Inc.

Upside-Down Lemon Muffins By: Judy Hines

Topping:

1/2 c. coconut

1/2 c. brown sugar

3 Tbsp. melted margarine

2 Tbsp. flour

1/8 tsp. nutmeg

Combine all ingredients for topping. Divide evenly among 12 well greased 2 1/2 inch muffin cups, pressing against bottom and sides.

2 c. flour

1/4 c. sugar

3 tsp. baking powder

1/2 tsp. salt

1/4 tsp. nutmeg

2 eggs

3/4 c. milk

3 Tbsp. oil

1 Tbsp. grated lemon rind

1 Tbsp. lemon juice

For muffins, stir together flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and nutmeg. Beat together remaining ingredients. Add to flour mixture and stir just until blended. Spoon into prepared muffin cups. Bake at 400 degrees for about 15 minutes.

Staff Review by Downtown Children's Librarian, Misty Snider.

One Day in December

By: Josie Silver

Recommended to me by my best friend, who always has a knack for knowing just what I need to read in that instant, One Day in December was everything she promised it would be and more. And I'm not just saying that because it was the first thing I've read for fun since spending a semester studying European History.

On a bus ride home, one day in December, Laurie locks eyes with a man waiting on the street. There's an instant connection, but before either of them can take action, the bus pulls away. Laurie and her best friend, Sarah spend the next year searching for Laurie's bus boy with no luck. Until the day she meets him, as Sarah's new boyfriend... I'll stop there, so you can enjoy how the rest of the story unfolds for yourself.

This book had just the right amount of romance for me without being overly sweet or raunchy. It was also the December pick for the Reese Witherspoon, Hello Sunshine Book Club. It's a classic romcom, best enjoyed on a winter weekend with a mug of something warm.
